This building is similar to 245 W. Chase Street, with the exception of the ground floor.

Opening from the right bay is a rectangular door with flat transom, spanned by an arched brick lintel. Coupled casement windows with four over four lights fill the left bay. They are supported by a stone sill and underlie an arched brick lintel.

The second floor and cornice are similar to that of 245 W. Chase Street, with which it forms a single structure.
